INDEX

TO THE TWELFTH VOLUME.

A

Association, British Indian, Proposed Establishment of a, 3.

Authors, Favourite, on, 22.

Amherst, Lord, Debate at the East India House on voting Thanks to, 105.

Attack on Bhurtpoor, Debate at the East India House, on the, 159.

Articles of the Treaty with the King of Ava, 334.

Ancient Account of the Capture of Bagdad by the Turks, A. D. 1637, by Sultán Murád Khán, 458.

Ambassadors Abroad, British, 465.

Abuses requiring Reform at Madras, 487.

B

British-Indian Association, Proposed Establishment of a, 3.

Bhurtpoor, Debate at the East India House on the Operations against, 159.

Burrampooter, Sources of the, 286.

Burmese War, Major Snodgrass's Narrative of the, 304.

Badenach, Capt., on the State of the Indian Army, 312.

Burmese Empire, Trade of the, 89.

Bathurst, Earl, Letters addressed to, by a Cape Colonist, 274.

Barrackpore, Debate at the India House on the Mutiny at, 344.

Bengal Army, Division Orders by Major-General Nicolls to the, June 19, 1826, 369.

Bath, Officers serving in India admitted to the Order of the, 371.

Bombay Gazette, Specimens of the, under the new Editorship, 94.

Baden, and its neighbourhood, Description of, 67.

Burmese War, Progress of the, Campaign of 1824, 1825, 246. Brevet Colonel William Morrison appointed to command of the South-Eastern Division of the Army, with the rank of Brigadier-General, 247. Formation of a Military Road from Chittagong to the Naaf, 248. Account of the Forces placed under Brigadier-General Morrison, 250. Extensive Naval co-operation, under the direction of Commodore Hayes, of the Hon. Company's Marine, 251. The Army march and again winter at Coxe's Bazar, 252. Attack on the Enemy's Stockades at Chamballa, by Commodore Hayes, 253. The Army move from the Camp at Meyhoo Moo to Keykraindong, 255. Advance to Chabatubeong, 256. Stockades and Works at Chamballa evacuated by the Burmese, 257. Passage of the Mehatta and forcing of the Enemy's Position, 258. Attack of the Pass leading to Arracan, 259, 260. Occupation of the City of Arracan, 261. The Army ravaged by disease—inefficient State of the Commissariat, 457. Preference shown to the King's over the Company's Officers by the Commanders in Chief, 471.

Burmese War, History of the, by Capt. White, 491.

British Ambassadors Abroad, 465.

Bagdad, Ancient Account of its Capture by the Turks, in A. D. 1637, by Sultán Murád Khán, 458.

C

Caffer Frontier, No. I., 11. No. II., 225.

Civil and Military Intelligence, 193, 361, 555.

Calcutta Press Regulation, Rejection of the, by the Supreme Court at Bombay, 201.

Cape of Good Hope in 1825, State of the, by a Colonist, No. IV., 274. Letters addressed to Earl Bathurst, by a Cape Colonist, 274, 276.

Case of Mr. James Hay, Indigo Planter in Poorneah, Bengal, 526.

Cadetships, Value of, Madras Army, 291.

Condition of Fort William, 302.

Coffee, Introduction into Europe of, 379. Not known in Arabia before the fifteenth Century—its use first observed in Persia, and afterward at Aden and at Mecca, 382, 383. Deliberations and Opinions of the Persian and Mohammedan Doctors on its qualities, 384, 385, 386. Passes from Cairo to Damascus and Aleppo, and afterwards to Constantinople, 387. Conjectured to have been first introduced into Europe at Venice, 389. Seen in France in 1644, and used in London in 1652, 390.

Continental Traveller, Letters from a, 449.

Controversy respecting the Serampore Missions, Dr. Marshman, on the, 499.

Cholera and Liver Complaints, on, from Dr. Graham's 'Treatise on Domestic Medicine.'

D

Demoralization of Hindooism, 71.

Debate at the East India House on voting Thanks to Lord Amherst, 105. On the operations against Bhurtpoor, 159. The Dividend, 334. On the Company's Shipping, 335. On the Qualifications of Officers in India, 342. On Medical and Military Officers, 343. On the Mutiny at Barrackpore, 344. On the present state of Oriental Education, 533. Notice of Motions by Col. Stanhope—The Press in India—War between Russia and Persia, 545, 546. Notice of Motion by Mr. Poynder—Burning of Hindoo Widows, 546.

E

Eastern World, Incidents and Events in Europe, connected with the, 398. Honours to Lords Amherst and Combermere—Sale of the Burmese State Carriage—Bishop of Calcutta, 399. Death and Character of the Marquis of Hastings, *101. Correspondence of Dr. Gilchrist with the Secretary of the East India Company, communicating his intention to become a Candidate for the Direction, 553. Jacob Bosanquet, Esq., to the Proprietors of East India Stock, on resigning his Seat in the Direction, 554. Address of Major Carnac to the Proprietors of East India Stock, as Candidate for the Direction, 554. Indian Writerships, 555. Burning of Hindoo Widows, 555.

Europe, on the Introduction of Coffee into, 379.

Excursions in Germany, 67.

Easton's Improved Hydraulic Engine, 310.

Exile, the, a Poem, by R. H. Rattray, Esq., Review of, 217.

Excursions on the Banks of the Nile, No. I., 393.

F

Favourite Authors, on, 22.

Fires in France, 267.

Fort William, Condition of, 302.

Frontier Caffer, No. II., 225.

G

Germany, Excursions in, 67.

Greek Loan, Mr. Hume, 76.

General Orders from the Government to the Madras Army, June 13th, 1826, 307.

Graham, Dr., on Cholera and Liver Complaints, 527.

H

History and Description of Orfah, in Mesopotamia, 39.

Hindoo System, on the Tendency of the, to Distress and Impoverish them, 71.

Hume, Mr., and the Greek Loan, 76.

Hull, the late John Fowler, 301.

Hydraulic Engine, Easton's improved, 310.

Hastings, Death and Character of the Marquis of, *101.

Historical Sketch of the Rise and Progress of the British Power in India, 410.

History of the Burmese War, by Capt. White, 491.

Hay, Mr. James, Indigo Planter in Poorneah, Bengal, case of, 526.

I

India, and other Countries of the East, Summary of Intelligence from, 88. Bengal, Rangoon, 88. Trade of the Burmese Empire, 89, 90, 91. Madras, 93. Bombay, Specimens from the Bombay Gazette under the new Editorship, 94, 95, 96. Central India, 97. Java, 98. Singapore, 99. New South Wales, 100. Pacific Islands, 101. Cape of Good Hope, 102. Persia, 104. Proclamation of the Russian General Yermoloff, *97. Bengal, 314. Description of the Medical Topography of Arracan, and its prevalent Diseases, 318. Extract from the Report of the Asiatic Society in Calcutta, 320. Madras, 322.

Bombay, 323. Java, 327. Persia, 327. Cape of Good Hope; Extract from 'The South African Commercial Advertiser,' 328.

Incidents and Events in Europe connected with the Eastern World, *98.

India House, Debate on voting thanks to Lord Amherst, at the, 105. On the Operations against Bhurtpoor, 159. The Dividend, 334. On the Company's Shipping, 335. On the Qualifications of Officers in India, 342. On Medical and Military Officers, 343. On the Mutiny at Barrackpore, 344.

India. Historical Sketch of the Rise and Progress of the British Power in, XI., 410. Bassein taken by General Goddard, in January 1781, who advances within forty-five miles of Poonah, 410. The Mahrattas offer Peace, but the overtures of the English are rejected, 410. Differences between the Governor and Council and the Supreme Court at Calcutta, 411. Tyranny and intemperate Proceedings of the Judges, 414.

Indians of Mount Carmel, from 'Memoires du Chevalier D'Arvieux,' 283.

Indian Army, State of the, by Captain Badenach, 312.

Indian Affairs, Strictures on, 'The British Critic,' and 'Monthly Review,' 27.

Indian Sonnets, by D. L. Richardson, 509, 511.

Introduction of Coffee into Europe, on the, 380.

J

Judgment of Chief Justice Sir Edward West, Mr. Justice Rice, and Mr. Justice Chambers, on the Calcutta Press Regulation, *211, *212 *213.

K

Keppell's, Captain, Journey Overland from India to England, 299.

L

Law of Libel in England and in India,—Theoretical and Practical View of the, No. IX. Practical View of the Law of Libel in England, 53. Trials of Almon, Miller, and Woodfall, for publishing the Letter of Junius to the King, 53. Trial of John Horne for Libel, 57. Case of Dr. Shipley, Dean of St. Asaph, for printing Sir William Jones's Dialogue between a Gentleman and a Farmer, 59. Trial of Lord George Gordon for Libel, 437. Case of the Rev. William Friend and others, 4 9. Case of Clement and others, in 1817, 441. Trial of Thomas Muir, Esq., 444. Trial of the Rev. Thomas Fyshe Palmer, 449. Trial of Messrs. Skirving, Margarot, and Gerrald, 450, 453. Trial of Daniel Isaac Eaton, 456.

Laws of Quarantine, on the, 473.

Licensers of the Press, 264.

Letters addressed to Earl Bathurst, by a Cape Colonist, 274, 276.

Letters from a Continental Traveller—Frankfort on the Mein, 419. Darmstadt, Heidelberg, Carlsrhue, Stutgard, Augsburg, and Munich, 422. Vienna, 426. Climate, Music, Italian Opera, 427, 428, 429. Trieste, Venice, 432.

Letter of Dr. Marshman, on the Controversy respecting the Serampore Missions, 499.

M

Macnaghten, Captain, 81, 271.

Mount Carmel, Account of the Indians of, from 'Memoires du Chevalier D'Arvieux,' 283.

Madras Army, Value of Cadetships, 291.

Military and Medical Vacancies in India, 297.

Medical and Military Officers, Debate at the India House on, 343.

Mutiny at Barrackpore, Debate at the India House on the, 344.

Madras Army, June 13, 1826, General Orders of the Government to the, 367.

Madras, Abuses requiring Reform at, 487.

N

Narrative of the Burmese War, by Major Snodgrass, 304.

Nile, Excursions on the Banks of the, No. I., 393. Journey from Alexandria to Rosetta—Aboukir, 394. Rosetta, 395. Passage up the Nile to Cairo, 399. Ignorance and Credulity of the Natives, 400. Distant View of the Pyramids of Ghizah, 404. Cairo, 405.

Orfah in Mesopotamia, the Edessa of the Greeks, and the Ur of the Chaldees, History and Description of, 39. Bazars, 42. Khans and Mosques, 43. Baths, Manufactories, &c., 44, 45. Cook-shops and Coffee-houses, 46. Population and Dress, 47. Government and Language, 48. Castle of Orfah, 49. Ancient Burying-places and Roman Ruins, 50. General appearance of the City, 50, 51.

Oriental Origin of the Parable against Persecution, 293.

Orders, General, from the Government, to the Madras Army, June 13, 1826, 367.

Orders, Division, to the Bengal Army, by Major-General Nicolls, commanding 2d Division of the Army, June 19, 1826, 369.

Officers serving in India admitted to the Order of the Bath, 371.

Officers in India, Debate at the India House on the Qualifications of, 342.

Olden Time, The—No. II., A cruizing Voyage round the World, in 1708-11, by Capt. Woodes Rogers, 493. Visits the Island of Juan Fernandez—Account of Alexander Selkirk, 495.

Oriental Legislation, in matters of Police, Specimens of, 512.

P

Proposed Establishment of a British-Indian Association, 3.

Pictures, A Visit to the King's Collection of, 237.

Progress of the Burmese War—Campaign of 1824, 1825, 246.

Press, Licensers of the, 264.

Persecution, Oriental Origin of the Parable against, 293.

Press Regulation, Rejection of the Calcutta, by the Supreme Court of Bombay, 201.

Persia, Sketches of, from the Journal of a Traveller in the East, 532.

Poetry—Lines, by Miss S. E. Hatfield, author of the 'Wanderer of Scandinavia,' 9. The Bard of Liberty, 21. The Questions of Love, 52. Sonnet —To my Twin Boys, by D. L. Richardson, 66. Sonnet—The Caffer, 70. No! I ask no laurel wreath, 75. Nature, by D. L. Richardson, 80. Sonnet, written in South Africa, *216. Why mourns the Land? 245. Afar in the Desert, by T. Pringle, Esq., 265. Sonnet—A common Character, 273. Posthumous Fame, 282. Marcus Brutus, Bion. 285. Caffer Song—The Rock of Elks, 290. Sonnet, written in South Africa, 309. The Earthquake at Aleppo, 405. The Farewell (from the Arabic of Abu Mohammed) translated from the German, 418. Sonnet—To Oppression, 436. Sonnet—The nameless Stream, 457. Sonnet—To Slavery, 472. Sonnet—Franschehoek, South Africa, 486. Sonnet—Sun-set, from Richardson's 'Sonnets and other Poems,' 498. Sonnet, written in India, 509. Sonnet—The Suttee, 511. Sonnet—Sun-rise, by D. L. Richardson, 532.

Q

Qualifications of Officers in India, Debate at the East India House on the, 342.

Quarantine, on the Laws of, 473. Dr. Maclean's Dissertation on the Source of Epidemic and Pestilential Diseases, 474. Produced a great Sensation in America, 474. Unnoticed by our Boards of Health, 475. Result of Dr. Maclean's Researches in the Levant concerning the Plague, 477. Correspondence between him and different Members of his Majesty's Government, 477, 486.

R

Reviewers Reviewed; Strictures on Indian Affairs; The British Critic and Monthly Review, 27.

Rejection of the Calcutta Press Regulation by the Supreme Court at Bombay, 201. Character and Acts of Sir Edward West, 203. Copy of the 'Rule, Ordinance, and Regulation, &c.,' 211. Judgment of the Chief Justice, Sir Edward West, 213. Judgment of Mr. Justice Rice, *211. Judgment of Mr. Justice Chambers, *212.

Review. The Exile, a poem, by R. H. Rattray, Esq., 217.

S

Sources of the Burrampooter, 286.

Snodgrass, Major, Narrative of the Burmese War, by, 304.

State of the Indian Army, by Capt. Badenach, 312.

State of the Cape of Good Hope, by a Colonist, No. IV., 274. Letters addressed to Earl Bathurst, by a Cape Colonist, 274, 276.

Specimens of the 'Bombay Gazette' under the new Editorship, 94.

Strictures on Indian Affairs. 'The British Critic' and 'Monthly Review,' 27.

Serampore Missions, Letter of Dr. Marshman on the Controversy respecting the, 499.

Sonnets, Indian, by D. L. Richardson, 509, 511.

Specimens of Oriental Legislation in matters of Police, 512. Proclamation of the Sublime Porte relative to the Institution of the Chief Police, 513. Creation of a Prefect of Police, and Declaration respecting the Greeks, 514. Proclamation of the Sublime Porte to the Musulman People against Seditious Conversation, 516. Petition and Letter of the Natives of Bombay to the President and Governor in Council, July 1826.

Sketches of Persia, from the Journals of a Traveller in the East, 532.

Summary of the latest Intelligence connected with the Eastern World—Bengal, 88. Madras, Bombay, 93. Central India, 97. Java, 98. Singapore, 99. New South Wales, 99. Pacific Island—Cape of Good Hope, 101. Persia, 104. Bengal, 314. Madras, 322. Bombay, 323. Java—Persia, 327. Cape of Good Hope, 328. Resignation of the Government of India by Lord Amherst, 547. Bengal, 550. Bombay, 551.

T

Treaty with the King of Ava, Articles of the, 332.

Theoretical and Practical View of the Law of Libel in England and in India, No, IX., 53, 437.

Traveller, Letters from a Continental, 419.

V

Visit to the King's Collection of Pictures, 327.

Value of Cadetships in the Madras Army, 291.

Vacancies in India, Military and Medical, 297.

View of the Law of Libel in England and India, No. IX. 53, 437.

W

Walks in Germany—Baden, 67. Valley of the Murg, 68. Forbach and Fruedenstadt, 69.

War, Major Snodgras's Narrative of the Burmese, 304.

——— Captain White's History of the Burmese, 491.

END OF VOL. XII.

Cheese, Gordon, and Co., Red Lion Court.